

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

YESTERDAY.
Murrell-Clarke wedding in First Baptist Church at 5:30 P. M.
Murrell-Clarke wedding in First Baptist Church at 5:30 P. M.
Murrell-Clarke wedding in First Baptist Church at 5:30 P. M.

TO-DAY.
Kate Wheelock Whist Club at 4:30 P. M. with Mrs. Bland Smith.
Murrell-Clarke wedding in First Baptist Church at 5:30 P. M.

Attended Dinner at Chamberlin.
Governor and Mrs. Swanson left last afternoon at 4 o'clock for the Chamberlin, where they were guests last evening at the dinner given by General Fred D. Grant in honor of General Kuroki, the famous Japanese leader.

From the Chamberlin, Mrs. Swanson will go to-day to the Virginia Building at the Jamestown Exposition to remain for a day or two. The first lady in Virginia is kept pleasantly busy, but she plays the part of hostess so well and so easily that the discharge of her duties only seems to fender her more than ever attractive.

Murrell-Clarke.
One of the prettiest of spring weddings was celebrated at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, when Miss Gertrude Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey Clarke, became the bride of Dr. Thomas Whitehead Murrell, of this city.

The Rev. Edward B. Pollard, Ph.D. of Chester, Pa., uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Dr. George W. McDaniel, pastor of the church. The ceremony was performed before an altar adorned with palms, and the music, which was particularly beautiful, included a song composed by the organist, Mr. Shepherd Webb, and dedicated to the bride.

Misses Virginia and Emma Clarke, sisters of the bride, were maids of honor, and wore pretty pink lingerie gowns with rose hosiery trimmed with chiffon. Their flowers were pink sweet peas.

Six bridesmaids, dressed in dainty white lingerie gowns, and rose leg-horn hats, and carrying pink parasols, were Miss Louise Clarke, Miss Grace Greenwood and Miss Kate Gunn, of Richmond; Miss Leonora Cooke, of Hollins, Va.; Miss Leslie Jeffries, of Norfolk, and Miss Louise Woodward, of Baltimore.

Mr. Irving Whitehead, of Lynchburg, was best man, and the list of groomsmen included: Dr. Kelly, Dr. Samuel Wilson, Dr. Louis K. Leake, Mr. William Brockenbrough, Mr. Hartwell Taylor, of New Britain, Conn., and Mr. Julian Gunn, of Richmond.

The bride entered the church with her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white satin made in Empire style and trimmed with princess lace. Her tulle veil fell from a coronet of lilacs of the valley. She carried a shower of the same blossoms.

After a wedding tour Dr. and Mrs. Murrell will make their home in Richmond.

The bride is the granddaughter of Dr. John Pollard, who was for many years professor of English at Richmond College.

Dr. Murrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Murrell of this city, and is a successful young physician. He has received an excellent professional education both in America and abroad, and has already won recognition as adjunct-professor at the University College of Medicine in this city. He is the grandson of the Hon. Thomas Whitehead, at one time member of Congress from Virginia and afterward State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mrs. Allen at the Jefferson.
Mrs. William Allen of New York, formerly of this city, is at the Jefferson Hotel, until Thursday.

She went to Jamestown Island Monday with the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities and had the pleasure of meeting many of her Richmond friends, who were also present at the famous picnic at the island.

Mrs. Allen says she is always pleased to find herself in the South, and especially in this community, where for years she was so much admired. She was before her marriage Miss Minnie Anderson, of Savannah, Ga., but she was educated at the famous private school conducted by the Misses Randolph at "Edge Hill," Albemarle county, and her associations are largely connected with Richmond and Virginia.

Miss Coleman Returns.
Miss Lucy Coleman returned Monday from Providence, R. I., where she went to represent the Richmond Education Association at the annual meeting of the Conference of Eastern Public Education Associations. This federation now includes associations from Maine to New Orleans, and the occasion of their meeting in Richmond two years ago is still pleasantly remembered by all who were present at that time. The meeting next year will be held in Washington, D. C.

Miss Patton's Success.
Miss Sue French Patton, of Ashland, Va., who has been studying at the Chase Art School in New York, has received notice of her success in Public Education Associations. This federation now includes associations from Maine to New Orleans, and the occasion of their meeting in Richmond two years ago is still pleasantly remembered by all who were present at that time. The meeting next year will be held in Washington, D. C.

Mellwaine Knight & Co.,
... Makers of the ...
"HONEST-AS-A-DOLLAR" CLOTHES

Made in New York, where styles originate
Sold in best stores from Atlantic to the Pacific

Every garment guaranteed as represented or your money back
(A postal will bring one of our twenty-two salesmen.)

King Quality Oxfords are so fitted that they cannot slip at the heel, and so cut that they will not chafe the ankle. In fact, they are comfort and beauty personified. Not to wear them this spring is to do your feet an injustice.

The most critical examination of the most discerning experts fails to reveal a flaw in any part of these elegant shoes.

POWELL BROS., 1541 E. Main St.

talent of the young artist. Miss Patton is receiving the congratulations of her many friends.

Stay-at-Home Whist.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Monday evening with Mr. John Tyler, of No. 516 West Franklin Street. Three tables were engaged and top-score was made by Mr. Bland Spottwood Smith and Mr. Robert Scott.

The club will meet next Tuesday evening with Mr. Bland Smith, No. 301 East Grace Street.

Literary Meeting, D. A. R.
The meeting of Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, announced for to-day has been postponed until Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. M. Allen Chambers, of No. 232 West Main Street, will be hostess and a carefully prepared literary and musical program will be rendered.

Fancy Sale.
The Woman's Aid Society of St. Mark's Church will hold a sale of useful and fancy articles in the lecture-room on Friday next. In the evening, from 8 to 10, some fine tableaux will be presented, and good music rendered. Light refreshments will be served.

To Play at Woman's Club.
Mr. Knut Schindler, assistant conductor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York, will be at the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and will play several original selections.

This will be an unusual opportunity for Richmond musicians to hear a noted and altogether thorough artist at a most opportune time.

During his stay in Richmond Mr. Schindler will be at No. 201 East Franklin Street. He will leave in a few days to be the guest of Dr. E. A. Alderman at the University of Virginia.

Of Interest Here.
The Baltimore Sun of yesterday has the following announcement that will be of great interest to Richmond friends and relatives of Mr. Albert Cabell Ritchie, the Sun says:

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Catharine Baker to Mr. Albert Cabell Ritchie, which will take place Saturday, will be a quiet one. The ceremony will be performed at the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Ingleside, at Catonsville, in the presence of only the members of the two families. A small breakfast will follow the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will leave for San Francisco, and will sail for a two-months' trip to Japan, stopping en route at Hawaii.

To Wed Baltimorean.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson Conway, of Danville, Va., have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Mary Agnes Moore, to Dr. Kenneth Whitely Egerton, of No. 1815 North Charles Street, Baltimore. The marriage will take place in Danville on June 24th.

Ladies Express Thanks.
The ladies of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities desire to express their appreciation to the company of the Blues' Battalion, who attended the ceremony at Jamestown Monday and added so much to the pleasure and dignity of the occasion.

They also wish to thank the band, who rendered an almost continuous program of music about the Pocahontas, both going and coming, and the policemen who handled the crowds so politely and effectively on the trip.

Mrs. Hollenberg Here.
Mrs. H. G. Hollenberg, of Little Rock, Ark., who has been spending the winter in Washington, actively engaged in the work of the many patriotic associations to which she belongs, especially in the interest of the Jamestown Exposition, is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. F. Selden, of No. 3016 East Broad Street. She will leave shortly for the exposition, but will return the last of the month to attend the Confederate Reunion.

Mrs. Hollenberg was among the guests at Jamestown Island on Monday.

Personal Mention.
Miss Margaret Schmelz, of Hampton, Va., is here to attend the Murrell-Clarke wedding.

Miss Mary Osborne Templeton, of Waynesboro, Va., who has been spending the week at No. 115 East Franklin Street, will leave Monday for Savannah, Ga., to be bridesmaid at the Martin-Rohd wedding on June 5th.

Mrs. W. A. Daniel, of Salisbury, N. C., is the guest of the Misses Wilson, at No. 5 South Morris Street.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the Murrell-Clarke wedding yesterday were Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Pollard, of Chester, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thurman, of Atlanta; Mrs. Robert McCallin, of Cleveland, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. John Whitehead, of Richmond; and Mrs. Florence Whitehead, of Richmond.

PLACES OF INTEREST IN RICHMOND

State Capitol originally designed by Jefferson.
State Library Building, Capitol Square.

Old Bell Tower, Capitol Square.
Confederate Museum (Davis Mansion), Twelfth and Clay Streets.

Valentine Museum, Eleventh and Clay Streets.
Governor's Mansion, Capitol Square; Colonial structure, built in 1815.

Old Stone House, Main, near Nineteenth; built in eighteenth century.
Kindergarten in America, Broad, near Twelfth Street.

John Marshall Mansion, Ninth and Marshall Streets.
Lee Camp Hall, Portrait Gallery, 514 East Broad Street.

Residence of General Robert E. Lee, now occupied by Virginia Historical Society.
First Masonic Temple in America, Franklin, near Nineteenth.

Franklin, near Nineteenth.
Van Lew Mansion, Grace, near Twenty-third.

St. John's Church, one of most historic spots in America; Twenty-fourth and Broad.
Confederate Soldiers' Home, west of city.

City Hall, Broad and Tenth.
Monumental Episcopal Church, scene of famous theatre holocaust, Broad, near Fourteenth.

Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Laurel Street and Main Street.
Crawford's equestrian statue of Washington, in Capitol Square.

Statue of "Stonewall" Jackson, in Capitol Square.
Statue of Henry Clay, in Capitol Square.

Houdon's statue of Washington, in Capitol, most celebrated piece of statuary in city.
Mercer's majestic equestrian statue of Robert E. Lee, Franklin Street and Allen Avenue.

Statue of "Soldiers' Monument," Twenty-ninth and Main Streets.
Equestrian statue of J. E. B. Stuart, great cavalry commander, Monument Avenue.

Holtzner Monument, Grove Avenue and Harrison Street.
Statue of A. P. Hill, Hermitage Park, near city.

Statue of General Williams C. Wickham, Monroe Square.
Jefferson Davis Memorial, Franklin and Cedar Streets.

George E. Pickett Monument, in Hollywood.
Hollywood Cemetery, with graves of 15,000 Confederate soldiers, tombs of Presidents Monroe and Tyler, President Davis, Commodore Andrew Rodgers, Hugh Lee, Stuart, Pickett, Wise, William Smith and many others.

Oakwood Cemetery, where 16,000 Confederate soldiers lie buried.
Norfolk: Mrs. Henry Drewry Perkins, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitehead, of Amherst, Va.; the Hon. Charles E. Murrell, of Lynchburg.

Miss Hattie Shields, of this city, who is visiting Norfolk friends, was among the guests at a charming afternoon tea given on board the United States steamship Minnesota on the 12th. Midshipman Bruce McKinney entertained the guests aboard the United States ship Tennessee on the same day when Miss Shields and Miss Bessie Merritt were included among the guests.

Miss Ada Talley, of Hanover county, is the guest of Mrs. J. J. Davis, Jr., on Venable Street.
Mr. William Humphreys, who has been taking a course at a medical college here, has left for Fredericksburg to spend the summer.

McCorle, in Dinwiddie Street, Portsmouth.
Miss Mattie Carruthers is visiting her parents in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Powhatan Breeden visited Mrs. H. C. Scott, in Ashland, last week.

PLEASED WITH VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce and Lady Grey Visit Places of Interest.

Ambassador Bryce, Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey left yesterday afternoon by private car for Washington, D. C. After having been, since Sunday afternoon, the guests of Governor Claude A. Swanson and Mrs. Swanson at the Executive Mansion.

The following morning Monday's trip to the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

McCorle, in Dinwiddie Street, Portsmouth.
Miss Mattie Carruthers is visiting her parents in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Powhatan Breeden visited Mrs. H. C. Scott, in Ashland, last week.

PLEASED WITH VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce and Lady Grey Visit Places of Interest.

Ambassador Bryce, Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey left yesterday afternoon by private car for Washington, D. C. After having been, since Sunday afternoon, the guests of Governor Claude A. Swanson and Mrs. Swanson at the Executive Mansion.

The following morning Monday's trip to the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

Later in the forenoon, Mr. Joseph Bryan and Mr. R. A. Lancaster called and took Mrs. Bryce and Lady Evelyn Grey to the Confederate Museum, where all were delighted with the arrangement of the building, the rooms and the priceless treasures.

After leaving the museum, they then drove to Hollywood, to the Davis section, President Monroe's tomb and the Confederate Monument. The beautiful Virginia Avenue, the new legislative building, the new State House, and the new State Capitol, where they saw and admired Houdon's statue of Washington, visited the old and the new State House, and the new State Capitol, and after viewing the monuments in the Capitol Square went to the State Library to inspect the many objects of historic interest contained therein.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Special for This Week's Selling
One Hundred Women's High-Class, Exclusive Summer Suits

Worth $25.00, $29.50 and $35.00
Will Go on Sale To-Day

at $19.50 each

Among the fabrics are Panama, novelty mixtures, taffeta, fancy foulard silk and linens, in black, navy, browns, gray, stripes and checks. A large variety of styles to select from, assuring an exclusive as well as a correct and stunning style to each purchaser.

Odd Lot Linen and Silk Jumper Suits

At Greatly Reduced Prices
About fifteen suits in the lot; all this season's best selling styles. They are odds and ends from our regular stock. Material, silks and linens, plain and fancy effects.

Prices Were $20.00 and $15.00, Now .. $9.98

Skirts That Were $8.50 to $15.00

Now $5.98

Smart, stylish Skirts from New York's best makers. Every woman who gets one of these skirts can congratulate herself, as the saving in every instance is about one-half or more. Every skirt in the lot is of the newest style, and made in the best of manner.

Materials are Panama and fancy and novelty gray mixtures.

French Batiste Robes

$6.98 to $20 Robes, now $3.98 to $12.50
At Quick-Selling Prices

There are not more than seventy-five of these beautifully fashioned French Batiste Robes, and at this price they will hardly outlast to-day's selling.

Perfect in style, finish and material and artistically fashioned after exclusive Parisian models (white only).

Robes that were $25.00 now $9.98 | Robes that were $12.50 now $6.98
Robes that were $15.00 now $9.98 | Robes that were $20.00 now $12.50

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

ANNUAL COMMUNION
Catholic Society Will Observe Religious Custom
Next Sunday at Sacred Heart Cathedral at Eight o'clock Mass and at Vespers.

"The Knights of Columbus" is a society of Catholic gentlemen. Its objects are religious and patriotic. It aims to make its members better Christians and better citizens, and how very successfully it accomplishes this purpose is amply attested by the universal esteem and admiration in which the order is held the country over.

Organized relatively a short time, its wonderful influence for good is already felt in every State and Territory in the Union. Throughout the broad land, from Maine to California and from Vermont to Florida, the legitimate possession of its passport is a passport to respect and honor. The secret of this wonderful success is the exact care with which its membership is selected.

Before admission the character of each individual candidate is carefully and thoroughly scrutinized, and no one is admitted who is not found to be a faithful and consistent Catholic and an upright and honorable citizen.

In fact, the order points with pride to its membership as a body of select and representative Catholics and consequently true and patriotic citizens.

About ten years ago a council of the order was instituted in this city. This council now numbers over 300 members. It enjoys the esteem and respect of the Catholic community and in Catholic circles is pointed to as the representative Catholic society of the city. The bishop and priests are at all times unstinted in their praise. They thoroughly appreciate its powerful influence in the spread of Catholic thought and practice in the city.

It is a beautiful custom, the order on the body of the year to give public manifestation of the Catholic faith and practice of its members by publicly receiving Holy Communion. This is done every year, and the day in a special religious manner.

In accordance with this custom, the Knights of Columbus have decided to receive Holy Communion in a body in the Sacred Heart Cathedral next Sunday at 8 o'clock mass, and judging from the enthusiasm displayed, it is expected that the full membership will be present. They will also attend the vespers service in the evening at 8 o'clock, when Rev. Father William Sullivan, the pastor of the cathedral, will preach. The music will be rendered by the regular choir, assisted by that of the Knights of Columbus.

CAR AND WAGON MIX.

Italian Driver Thrown Out and Taken to Hospital.

Gino Cambillo, the driver who was hurled from a bakery wagon from the impact of a Main Street car at Fifth Street yesterday morning and was taken to the Virginia Hospital for treatment, was found to be seriously injured, and after a few bruises about his hands and head had been dressed and taken to the hospital, he was taken to the hospital south in the center of Fifth, when the two collided. The wagon was started only a short distance. Aside from the loss of a few leaves or bread no damage was done to either wagon or horse.

Sensational Skating Act.
At the skating rink this week Mr. W. F. Sale, Jr., one of the most daring young roller skaters ever seen here, is presenting twice daily his perilous "Coast of Death." Dashing down a narrow board, he is expected to make a jump of a thirty-foot elevation, young Sale plunges over eight chairs and skates off.

Many ladies in the audience Monday afternoon and evening and again yesterday turned their heads as he started down the incline, his roller skates fairly whistling.

It's Dollars to Doughnuts that if you have once tried Good Luck Baking Powder you are still using it. Good Luck will raise your baking to the highest degree of excellence. Its fine baking qualities and low price of 10c per pound make